

MARYLAND PRIEST HEADS U. S. JESUITS

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Very Rev. Joseph F. Hanselman, S. J., president of the College of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Woodlake, Md., former provincial of the New York-Maryland province of the Jesuits, and one of the best-known Jesuit priests in the United States, has been elevated to the high office of American assistant-general of the Jesuit order. He is the second American Jesuit to hold this office, the first having been the late Very Rev. Thomas J. Gannon, who died January 25 last in Zizers, Switzerland. Father Gannon was attached to the New York-Maryland province, and Father Hanselman succeeds him. Unlike Father Gannon, who during his term as assistant general lived in Switzerland, Father Hanselman will remain in this country while the war continues. He may go to Switzerland when hostilities are over. Father Hanselman was born in Brooklyn more than sixty years ago. His family has devoted itself to religious service, two of his sisters having joined religious communities and three of his brothers having become priests. The new assistant general was educated in the parochial school attached to the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn, later being graduated from St. Francis Xavier College, West Sixteenth street, New York. The following year he studied in the Grand Seminary, Montreal, after which he decided to become a Jesuit. Two years were spent in a novitiate of the Jesuit order. Then he was sent to the Jesuit novitiate in Woodstock, Md. Cardinal Gibbons ordered him in the Baltimore Cathedral in 1892. In 1902 Father Hanselman was appointed president of Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., a post he held until March, 1904, when he was notified from Rome of his appointment as provincial of the Jesuit order of the Eastern province of the United States, succeeding Father Gannon. He was in control of all the college schools, churches, and other institutions east of the Alleghenies.

SAVES BODY OF BOY IN BLAZE AT WAKE

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—Love for his little cousin, who lay dead in a coffin, stole Joseph Poppo when his elders fled from a fire swept room in the Bronx. Twenty mourners, mostly women, were gathered at the bier of Dominick Mandillo, fourteen years old, when a gust of wind blew the window draperies against lighted candles. The curtains blazed up and caused a panic among the mourners, including the parents of the dead boy. As the fire spread all fled to the street except Poppo, who had placed with Mandillo and loved him. He walked deliberately to the coffin and lifting the body tenderly in his arms carried it to the street. The fire spread rapidly and destroyed the building. The boy was taken to the home of a neighbor.

ESCAPED GERMAN SAILOR ARRESTED

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 19.—Fifty men were arrested in a draft slacker raid made at Hightstown by Sheriff Fred Ross and several deputies of Mercer county. Among the prisoners is John Kloss, a German, who was one of the crew of the Crown Prince Wilhelm when this country declared war, and who made his escape after being placed under arrest at that time. Kloss had boasted that he would fight for Germany. Other prisoners are Hugo Grimm, an Austrian, who says New York is his home, and James Bruno, a Pole. These three men have been working on a farm in the vicinity of Hightstown, and the authorities believe that in taking them they have made important arrests. All the men caught in the raid are locked up in the Mercer county jail.

SUNDAY BATHING RESUMED IN BASIN

Washington bathers again are to be able to swim on Sundays without leaving the city. The new bathing beach in Tidal Basin, recently opened to the public, is to be kept open on Sundays from 7 o'clock in the morning until 7 o'clock in the evening, it was announced today. The hundreds of Washingtonians who want to swim on Sundays have been forced to go to bathing places outside of the city since the municipal bathing pools in the Mall were closed on Sundays several weeks ago on account of the water shortage. The Sunday bathing at the Tidal Basin beach is to be open to men, women, and children.

PASSES 97TH BIRTHDAY

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—Mrs. Esther Lobe celebrated her ninety-seventh birthday quietly yesterday. Her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren were with her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. B. Eisenman, 1804 Eutaw place. Mrs. Lobe is a remarkable woman for her age. She takes a keen interest in the national issues of the day and is desirous at all times to keep busy. She was born in Holland and came to this country when only seven years old. Her husband died more than forty years ago. Mrs. Lobe is the mother of former Attorney General Isaac Lobe Straus, and Mrs. Eisenman are her only living daughters and Napoleon B. Lobe her only living son.
